2. Verified Motion for Temporary Orders Ex Parte – If there is an existing case with the court, keep the Plaintiff/Defendant the same as it was in the original case. If there is not an existing case, you would be the plaintiff and the person you are filing against, would be the defendant. If there is no existing order, leave the case number blank. If there is an existing order, use the same case number that is on the existing order. Fill in your name. 3. If your Motion is granted, a hearing will be set.

WHEN A HEARING IS SET

1. You should present a neat appearance to the Court. The Court will not permit anyone to appear in court if he/she is wearing any of the following items of clothing: a hat, shorts, sandals, sleeveless shirts, tops, or blouses, clothing displaying indecent language or pictures, or clothing large rips or holes. Make sure that your witnesses know this and comply with these requirements.
2. You must be prepared for the hearing. You should have with you any witnesses that you wish to use to support your request. You should also bring any papers or other physical evidence that you want the Magistrate to see. It is your burden to prove that it is in the best interests of the child(ren) to be with you.
3. You will probably testify first. You should be prepared to tell the Magistrate the events that have happened that demonstrate you should be granted temporary custody. This is the only opportunity that you will have to present the facts, so make sure that you include everything.
4. VERY IMPORTANT: This is not the time to tell the Magistrate everything that the other person has done that you disagree with or that has hurt or angered you. The Magistrate will only want to hear the evidence that shows it is in the best interests of the child(ren) to be with you. Be prepared to limit your testimony to those points raised in your Motion. Tell the Magistrate why you believe the child(ren) benefit(s) by living in your home with you.
5. At the hearing, you may be asked questions by the Magistrate or by the other party or by an attorney. Directly respond to the questions. Listen to the question; make sure that you understand the question; and answer the question. If you do not understand the question, ask to have the question explained to you before answering it. Never answer a question you do not understand.
6. Child support and parenting time will also be decided. When child support is at issue, you must prove your income and expenses.
7. Note: The other party may ask the Court for parenting time or visitation. If you want visitation limited or supervised, you will have to prove that it is in the best interests of the child to do that. You should have a list or idea of your reasons to tell the Court why visitation should be limited or supervised. If you have no reasons, you should not ask for limitations or supervision.

Now comes Emily R. Hughes who being first duly sworn,

Deposes and says the following:

1. I am petitioner in case No. _____ and the grand-mother of Howard Allen Hughes, born 05-22-2001 and Alex Jason Hughes, born 07-01-2002.
2. In April of 2013, the Defendant, Esther Hughes, suffered a stroke and was on certain medications as part of his recovery. I believe that she has stopped taking her medications and has done so without a doctor's orders. It is my understanding that there are side effects to the use and discontinued use of these medications. One such side effect was suicidal tendencies.
3. The Defendant was hospitalized for her emotional / mental state. She was then released and since that time , she has become violent with me.
4. In February of 2014 the Defendant violently pushed me while I had Alex in my arms. In March of 2014 she threw a rock threw the window of my apartment while I was sitting in the living room, narrowly missing my head. When I refused to open the door to the apartment she used a golf club and broke out all the lights to my car. This occurred in Warren, OH, Trumbull county.
5. The Warren Police are going to file either assault or domestic violence charges against her. In addition they will also be filing child endangering charges.
6. If I had opened the door to the apartment in March of 2014 I am sure she would have used the golf club to physically assault me. I am fearful of her and can not trust her with the safety of my grandchildren.

7. I do not believe my grand-sons would be safe with her in her present state.
